PREPARATIONS CONTINUE FOR HOLY WEEK PERFORMANCES

Actors from Centerville and surrounding communities have been preparing for performances celebrating the Last Supper to be held during Holy Week at various churches. They're preparing for the drama "The Living Last Supper", written by Ernest K. Emurian. The idea was first formulated by the Methodist minister in Virginia in 1953, pondering da Vinci's famous artwork of "The Last Supper". After studying the inspiring picture, he proceeded to write the soliloquies for the twelve apostles as they might have expressed themselves immediately after hearing the Master say, "One of you will betray me", when each man cried out, "Lord, is it I?" This was the moment da Vinci wished to capture in his painting.

Since its publication, the play has been presented by many different groups across the country and has been a source of inspiration to many audiences during the season of Lent. Fourteen members of the Centerville and surrounding area will be presenting this drama for four nights throughout Holy Week at various venues, and they extend a warm invitation for all to "come and see"!

Hymn of Praise “This Is the Feast” pg. 60

Prayer of the Day:

Almighty God, our redeemer in our weakness we have failed to be your messengers of forgiveness and hope in the world. Renew us by your Holy Spirit, that we may follow your commands and proclaim your reign of love; through your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

First Reading Isaiah 43:16-21

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God

Psalms 126A Song of Ascents

When the Lord restored the fortunes of Zion, we were like those who dream.

² Then our mouth was filled with laughter, and our tongue with shouts of joy; then they said among the nations, “The Lord has done great things for them.”

³ The Lord has done great things for us; we are glad.

⁴ Restore our fortunes, O Lord, like streams in the Negeb!

⁵ Those who sow in tears shall reap with shouts of joy!

⁶ He who goes out weeping, bearing the seed for sowing, shall come home with shouts of joy, bringing his sheaves with him.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forever. Amen.

Second Reading Philippians 3:4b-14

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.
